
Faculty Senate Update

Jeanne Romero-Severson
Professor, Biological Sciences
Faculty Senate Chair

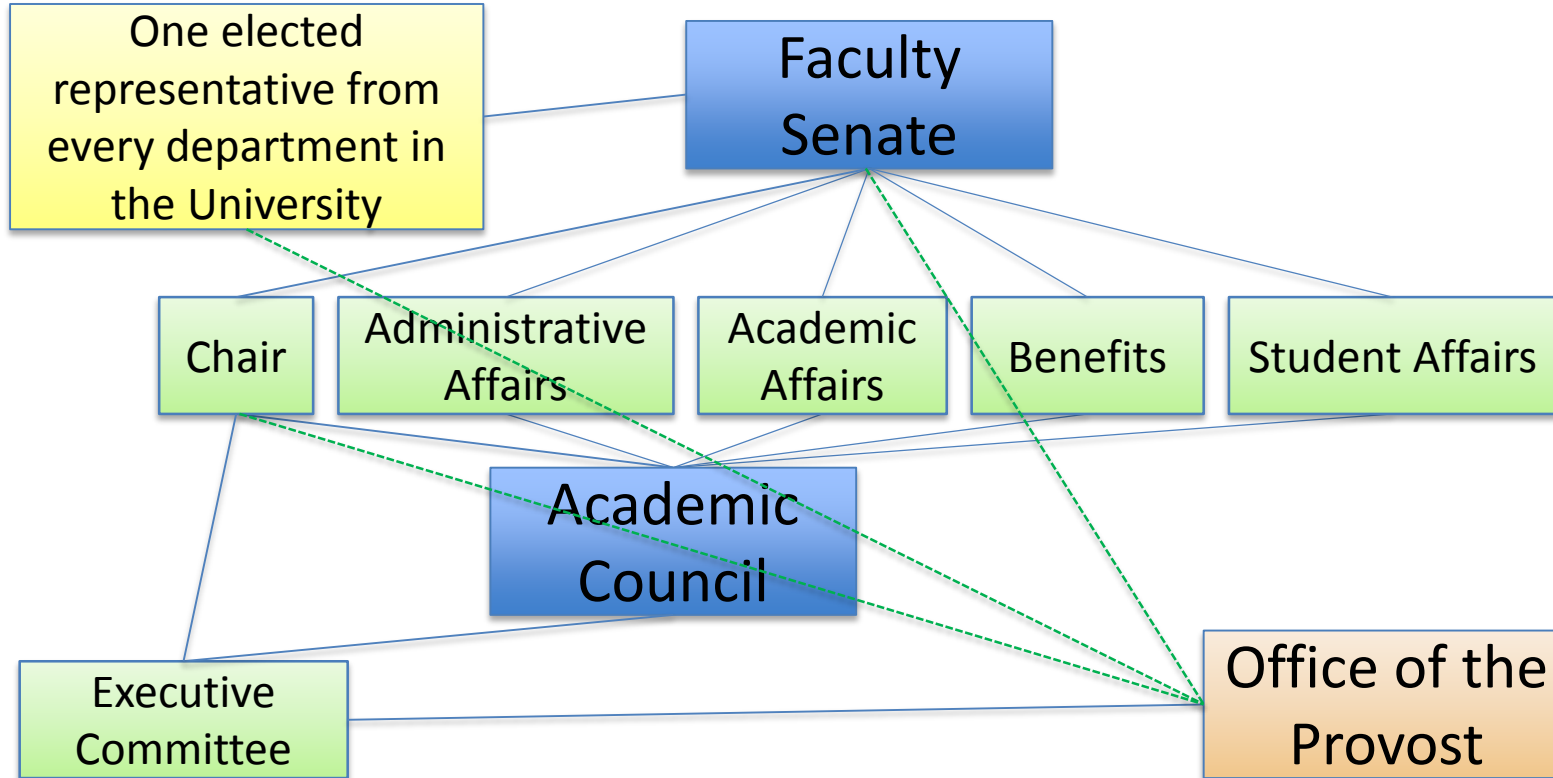

Faculty Governance at Notre Dame

The Faculty Senate

The Faculty Senate provides input and offers recommendations on:

- Issues affecting the faculty as a whole.
 - Issues on which a faculty perspective is appropriate.
 - Specific items requiring consideration by the faculty.
-

Faculty Senate in the Governance Structure

Positive Engagement

- Renew the role of the Faculty Senate in University Governance
 - Provost fellow
 - Senate Retreat- August 24, 2015
 - Entire Notre Dame Governance Structure
 - Considered areas of effective involvement for the academic year

Recent actions

- Chose which ACC Scholar to invite to ND in 2015
 - Robin Fleming-Boston College
 - Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman England
 - Initiated web site changes and redesign
 - Restructured administrative assistant position
 - Initiated regular meetings with the Provost
-

Work in progress

- Assessment of the process for the Joyce teaching award
 - Core curriculum recommendations - feedback
 - Course Instructor Feedback committee-participation
 - Professional Master's Degree proposals
 - Keogh Professional Master's degree
 - Honorary degree issues – pending resolution
 - Possible involvement
 - Academic honor code
-

